Tax practitioners and other preparers of tax returns should ask their clients for the State income tax forms booklet they received in the mail and use the pre-addressed label from the face of the booklet to asure faster and more accurate processing, Martin Huff, Executive Officer of the Franchise Tax Board, said recently.

The label, when peeled off the front of the tax package and placed at the top of the 540 form, will prevent errors in name and social security number that could hold up refunds for numerous taxpayers, Huff said.

Even though the taxpayer has help preparing his return, he can still affix the label to his State return before mailing it to the Franchise Tax Board to assure proper account identification and a prompt refund, according to Huff.

Taxpayers should also verify that their social security number is correct, the necessary W-2 forms are attached to the face of the return and that the return is signed.

Wants Contractor Declared Ineligible To Bid On Jobs

The Office of Federal Contract Compliance has been asked to declare Monterey general contractor Joseph B. Frantessa, Inc. ineligible to bid on any and all "Federal, State, County and City construction for violating his affirmative action program with reference to hiring".

The letter, addressed to Phillip Davis, Federal Contract Compliance Officer, Washington, D.C., was signed by Thomas Nash, a member of the Board of Directors of the Monterey County Hometown Plan, which is the Affirmative Action body, of Monterey County, for the construction industry.

The action stems from an attempt by the Hometown Plan to get two minority workers employed on the construction of the new United California Bank building in Seaside, CA, a city consisting of approximately 40% minorities.

In the letter, Mr. Nash stated that on Friday, January 25, "it was discovered that the United California Bank of Seaside was in the process of building a new bank building. It was further discovered that there were no minorities employed on this project, even though at least 40% of the total population of Seaside is minority," it said.

Representatives of the Monterey Hometown Plan, met with the local branch Manager of UCB, and learned that the properties department of UCB had let the contract to Joseph B. Fratessa, Inc., the low bidder.

"On Monday, January 28," the letter continued, "our field representative, Clintell C. Porter, called Mr. Fratessa, the prime contractor, who instructed Mr. Porter to bring two minorities over to his office and he would see that they were employed. The field representatives contacted the Carpenters' Unions of both Monterey and Salinas, and received the names of two journeymen, one Black and one Mexican/American. The men were taken to Mr. Fratessa's office where they were turned over to Rene Dean at the request of Mr. Fratessa."

Dean, according to the letter, took the applications of the two men and informed them that there was a shortage of building materials, but as soon as additional supplies arrived they would be contacted and would start to work. This would be only a few days. The letter states, "From January 28, 1974 to date, neither of the men have been contacted by the Fratessa organization, yet the building continues to rise."

Copies of the letter have been forwarded to the Secretary of the Army, Navy, Air Force, U.S. Department of Labor, OFCC - San Francisco, Office of Economic Opportunity, HEW, HUD, Congressman Burt L. Talcott, Governor Ronald Reagan, State Senator Donald Grunsky, Assemblyman Bob Woods, California State FEPC, Small Business Administration, Monterey County Board of Supervisors, Monterey County Administrator, Mayor B. J. Dolan of Seaside, The Seaside City Council, Seaside City Manager, and Mr. Joseph B. Fratessa.

A meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday with members of UCB, Fratessa, members of the Monterey County Hometown Plan and Mr. Nash.

Symphony Awarded $1500 Grant

Word has been received from Mrs. Allan Pattee, Member of California Arts Commission that Monterey County Symphony Association's request for a $1500 grant was approved. The grant must be matched by double the sum approved, or $3000.

Millard M. Hawkins, President of Local 616 American Federation of Musicians, will provide $1500 from Music Performance Trust Funds and the Symphony Association will fund the balance from contributions made specifically for youth work.

The grant was requested for a pilot project of in-school demonstrations initiated by Monterey County Symphony Association under the direction of Scott MacClelland, Chairman of the Youth Committee, and K-WAV's Clasical Music Director. Four demonstrations by Symphony musicians in four instrumental categories, percussion, woodwinds, strings and brass, are being presented in two schools in each of the three Peninsula Unified School Districts for a total of 24 demonstrations during the Spring term.

The first group featuring percussionists Stanley Rhees and James De Long, with Scott MacCleland as Narrator, presented two demonstrations each at Ord Terrace and Del Monte Schools in the Monterey District; David Avenue and Lighthouse Schools in the Pacific Grove District; Tularcitos and River Schools in Carmel District, to elementary groups averaging sixty to one-hundred pupils.

Beginning with primitive sounds of beating on a hollow log and communicating across a jungle full of wild animals and bird sounds vividly portrayed on tape, the demonstration progressed to participation by the children in a one-two-three rhythm which evolved into Ravel's "Bolero" accompanied by snare drum and timpani.

Ferde Grofe's "Grand Canyon Suite" was used to introduce the double wood block sound of the donkey's hooves. Grofe's storm sequence and the storm passage in Beethoven's "Pastoral Symphony" complete with thunder and lightning on drums, wind and rain on tam-tam and cymbals, were demonstrated before the eyes and ears of wide-eyed children.

The whole gamut of bass drums, kettle drums, snare drums, congo and bongo drums, tam tam (gong) exlophone, glockenspiel, triangle, cymbals of all sizes, castanets, tambourine, sleigh bells, and all manner of nosemakers and bell sounds in the percussion family were illustrated and explained.

Parent Participation Makes Coop Nursery Program Strong

Joining a parent cooperative nursery school turns out to be a learning experience for the whole family, according to Ruth Russell, director of the Peninsula Parent Nursery School located in room 7 at Del Monte Elementary School in Monterey.

This, she says, is because parents have found that they "enjoy being active participants in their child's first learning experiences outside of the home and seeing first-hand how he gets along with other children and adults."

Participation is the key word, as demonstrated by the fact that at her school parents not only work there several days a month, but in the past have completed such projects as painting and wallpapering the large classroom area, building huge storage boxes for outdoor equipment and constructing a solid, wooden climber in the playfied.

"Many of the learning materials for math and sensorial experiences were made by the parents," Mrs. Russell added.

"The children encounter life through a variety of nature experiences, art, creative movement and music," she said, all of which is shared by the parents.

This kind of direct participation by mothers and fathers gives them new insight into the development and behavior of their preschool children, according to Mrs. Russell.

"Co-op mothers and fathers are very special parents," she continued. "They really care enough to make dreams become a reality for the happiness of their own childand other children too."

The Peninsula Parent Nursery School is operated under the auspices of the Monterey Adult School. In addition to helping several days a month in the classroom, parents are asked to attend a class one evening a week, where they hear speakers and discuss child-rearing and related subjects.

The school takes children from two years and nine months up to kindergarten age. A variety of program schedules are available, including two and three morning a week (Tuesday-Thursday or Monday-Wednesday-Friday) plans or an afternoon session on Tuesdays and Thursdays, Mrs. Russell said. Morning sessions are from 9 a.m. to noon and afternoon classes run from 12:30 to 3 p.m.

The school now has some openings, Mrs. Russell said. Information about cost and enrolling can be obtained by calling Susan Holm at 373-5431.

WHERE ARE YOU? - These three climbers are looking for playmates to join them at cooperative Peninsula Parent Nursery School located at Del Monte Elementary School in Monterey. There are currently openings available in program, run under auspices of Monterey Adult School. Information about registration may be obtained by calling Susan Holm, 373-5431. The climber shared by (from left) Kimberely Brown, 4, of Seaside, John Mihok, 3, of Monterey and Stephanie Smith, 3, of Monterey, was built by parents of children who attend the nursery program.

Use Of Castanet Explained

How long does it take to learn to play the castanets, ancient percussion instruments used by Spanish dancers? "Forever!" says Jose Molina who will bring his troupe of dancers, BAILES ESPANOLES, here Wednesday, March 27th, to perform at 8:15 p.m. in the Sunset Center Theatre in Carmel.

He and his dancers, though well-versed in playing the twin hand-held instruments, practice with their castanets faithfully every day. "You never stop learning," he said. They carry the castanets with them. "You should see the looks when we are searched before boarding a plane," he smiled. The say, "What on earth is that?"

Castanets were used by ancient Greeks and Romans and introduced into Spain by the Moors. Always used in pairs, one in each hand, each of the pair consists of two round bowls hinged together by a cord. The player passes the loop of the cord over the thumb and first finger to clap the halves together to create rhythmic clicks. Traditionally, castanets have been made of hardwood such as rosewood or olive but in recent years a man-made plastic material has been found excellent for the instrument. "They do not break like the wood," he explained, showing his own castanets, the black plastic.

Pulling the instruments out of their knitted carrying case, he attached the cords and flexed his fingers before beginning a demonstration of their use. "The castanets should also be wamred up," he said. "Before a performance the boys place them under the arms; the girls put them in their bosoms. There they get the warmth from the body."

'LUV' Is SRO Show

The Broadway play and motion picture "LUV" is the first play to be performed in Monterey Peninsula College's Standing-Room Only (SRO) Theatre.

Play dates for "LUV" are Friday and Saturday March 8-9, according to Drama Department Chairman Morgan Stock. He said the significance of the theatre's name is a reminder that reservations should be made early or "standing-room only" will be available.

The 50-seat theatre is located within the main college Theatre building.

"LUV's" leading characters are Jane Evans, who plays "Mrs. Ellen Manville," Ben Luedtke as "Milt Manville" and Dennis Deutsch as "Harry Berlin." The story line finds "Harry Berlin" a third member in an uphappy marriage which breaks up the Manville household. Later the Manvilles find out that they really need each other and are in "LUV". A reception will follow the play on opening night.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. and tickets are $1.25 advance and $1.50 at the door. For reservations. call 375-0455.

C of C Progress Report

by Verlaine Crawford

The Seaside Chamber of Commerce is a working partnership of the leading represented business and professions. It is essentially an organization of men and women who know the wisdom of coordinating their efforts under effective leadership for the civic, industrial and commercial advancement of the community.

The Seaside Chamber is a non-profit organization. The funds are received from dues which are for the purpose of carrying forward a broad program of community development which is of direct benefit to every citizen. The funds are used to pay for the maintenance of headquarters, to employ a professional staff to handle specialized community problems, to provide literature setting forth the city's advantages, and to maintain informational service for business and professional people, school children, industrialists and all concerned.

The Chamber's scope of activities is virtually unlimited, depending upon the needs of the community. Our every day activities take us into the areas of transportation, industrial development, commerce, taxation, education, zoning, beautification, etc.... all with the sole objective of improving our economic climate. The Chamber does not attempt to carry on its vast program of work entirely by itself, but works closely with other local organizations and public agencies.

REASONS FOR JOINING YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE:

The Chamber is the only organization exclusively engaged in promoting the prosperity of our community.

Your membership is an investment in community service.

You are making an investment on which you get assured returns.

You are helping to formulate constructive planning and policy.

There is no other organization to do the work your Chamber does.

This is your "business home".

The activities of the Chamber are important because they make for more payrolls... more sales... more dollars... more and better business.

Make the Seaside Chamber of Commerce a department of your business... your active participation and financial support are the cornerstones of its success!

Addis Ababa -- China has sent a shipment of 10,000 tons of wheat here to assist in the drought-stricken north central and north areas.

Bob Wood Reports

Our office, from time to time, receives a letter from some unfortunate sould whose car has been hit by another driver who has no insurance and usually has no assets to voer the loss of the innocent victim.

The Department of Motor Vehicles tells us that the number of insured California drivers is decreasing. This worries me, and it is probably one of the principal reasons I support no-fault insurance which hopefully would at least make sure the responsible driver would be insured regardless of the circumstances.

In 1968, 92 percent of the drivers reporting accidents to the Department of Motor Vehicles had liability insurance. Today this figure has fallen to 82 percent. I thought you might be interested in knowing what you can do if your are involved in an accident with a motorist who is not insured.

First, begin by filing what is called an S.R.-1 report with the DMV. The state law requires you to file this report within 15 days of an accident if an injury has occurred or if the dmages are $200 or more.

If this report indicates the uninsured driver is at fault, DMV will have him deposit a sum with their department estimated to cover the cost of the damages.

This deposit will be held by DMV for up to one year pending either the outcome of the court case which you initiate or until an out-of-court settlement has been reached.

If the judge finds the uninsured motorist guilty, and if he refuses to pay, notify DMV. They will suspend his license until your claim has been satisfied. He must also show proof he has filed for liability insurance before DMV returns his license.

If you have collision insurance on your car, your company will pay the costs of repair, minus the deductible amount if you have deductible insurance. Your company will then tryp to collect from the guilty party.

You can purchase "uninsured motorist" insurance designed to protect you from these uninsured drivers. This extra insurance option, however, pays you only if your are injured.

Highway 1 Projects

A series of projects on Route 1 in Monterey county, was approved by the California Highway Commission in Sacramento.

Commissioner Robert E. Herdman of Solvang said the projects will improve drainage, control erosion, improve alignment, and install signals at various places along the Route in the three counties.

A total of $100,000 is available for three projects in Monterey County which will involve the extension of a culvert under a section of the highway about a tenth of a mile north of the Fort Ord Overhead, installation of sandbags at Rocky Creek, about 13 miles south of Carmel, and easing of a series of curves about 0.8 miles north of the San Luis Obispo County Line.

a BOOK that can CHANGE your whole life
Is GOD real to you? Can you trust HIM? Is HE near to you?
The Bible tells us we can turn to God for help, for health, for protection. Yet some think these Bible promises are empty. They don't have to be. Today there is a book that is helping many people tune in to the truth of God's nearness, His power and fatherliness. That book is Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures.
At a low point of poverty, hopeless illness and loneliness, its author, Mary Baker Eddy, saw that God can be trusted and loved. She found that God heals the sick when we love and understand Him. A deep student of the Bible, she discovered a Science based on living the Christianity Jesus taught. She won her freedom from poverty and disease and from her loneliness. Then she wrote down what she learned for the whole world.
By reading and studying this powerful book along with the Bible, men and women throughout the world have found that God can and will help them. These people have solved housing problems, gained opportunities for better education. They've won freedom from poverty, overcome racism. They've discovered what it really means to be the children of God.
You can borrow a copy of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures from the free lending library at any Christian Science Reading Room, or you can purchase it in paperback.
SPECIAL FREE OFFER
If you'll take this ad to one of these Reading Rooms, you can have your own copy of Science and Health to read for thirty days. If at the end of that time you want to keep it, you just pay the nominal purchase price of $1.95.
Or you can return it to the Reading Room with absolutely no obligation.
